Peter Onal Clerk and Commissioner, will sell at the Court-house to-day, the A. B. Maxey lot, on Main and King Streets. See advertisement.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS OR OINTMENT. Scrofula or morbid deposits in the lungs, joints and tissues. These medicines have rendered this disease a less formidable scourge than formerly. It has been incontestably proved that in Scrofulous affections they have effected thousands of cures. Sold everywhere. 25 cents per box or pot.

MR. FRANCIS MURPHY, a temperance lecturer, held a water-tight temperance meeting in Pittsburgh, on the night of 21st ult. The hall was crowded, and hundreds were unable to gain admission. Over 5,000 persons have signed the pledge in the past three weeks. We would like to see such a temperance revival in our city and county. There is no computing the amount of good that would result from it.

MR. R. R. NEALE, who had formed a partnership with the late William M. Kerr for the purpose of carrying on a tannery business at Kerr's factory, is now undertaking the business on its own account with the assistance of V. C. Smith, of New Providence, whose great experience will ensure satisfaction to the late customers of R. Kerr and as many others as may favor the establishment with their patronage. Mr. Neale is an enterprising and attentive business man, and Mr. Smith is too well known to planters of the county to need our recommendation. We wish well to the concern.

CONCERT AT THE ACADEMY.

Though it is two weeks since we attended this delightful entertainment, we cannot refrain from tendering our acknowledgments to the fair artists who planned and executed it with so much skill. We have always taken an especial interest in these concerts, both from a great fondness for music and for the great interest we take in the culture of that beautiful art as a department of education.

The main attraction in this affair was the singing of Miss E. S. Hall and Miss L. J. P. Smith, the two lady teachers of music, who, however, were assisted by several accomplished amateurs of the city, viz: Miss Symes, Messrs. W. A. Settle, R. Jackson and George McCurdy.

The programme was a long one, and we will not attempt to go through with the whole of it, but will make some mention of the principal singers.

Miss Smith being new to the Clarksville people claims our first attention. This young lady's voice is a soprano of the highest register; the soprano solo of the Italian, and as is usual with that class of voices, possesses an almost unlimited flexibility. This was manifested in the first part in the song which she substituted for Robin Adair.

We believe that it was composed expressly for Madame Nilsson, and is at any rate well adapted to exhibit the vocalization of that wonderful artist, and, of course, abounds in almost insuperable difficulties for an amateur. The skill and energy with which all these difficulties were successfully encountered and triumphantly overcome, would have been creditable in a public singer of the first class and were astonishing in one so young and trained only for private singing. It only needed the contrast of her delightful simplicity of style in the well known "Coming thro' the rye" to establish her reputation as an all-accomplished artist.

Of Miss Hall's qualities as vocalist and musician we have had several opportunities before now of expressing our high appreciation and we are much gratified at being able to congratulate her upon the complete restoration of her vocal powers, so long impaired by indisposition, and at being able to record that her singing was never more attractive than on the present occasion. Her principal pieces were the solo with chorus, Come like a beautiful dream—Danks, and Reihardt's beautiful air, Lullaby. Both of these she executed with that true intonation and perfect scientific method which makes everything she does a dainty treat for the most fastidious connoisseur. In the latter piece she manifested her power over one of the great difficulties in vocal music, that of singing pianissimo with a distinct and perfectly correct intonation. Very few public singers are equal to this test which she triumphantly encountered.

Several duets next demand attention, and especially Brahms', When the leaves are green. This was sung with much effect by Miss Smith and Miss Symes, and we gladly embrace the opportunity of mentioning the great aid given by the skillful second of the latter young lady to the bright and expressive singing of the former; in some respects singing a second is a severer test of the musical qualities of a vocalist than the taking the leading melody, and no one sings a second with more sympathetic sweetness than Miss Symes. We hope this is not the last time we are to hear her.

Next comes The Syren and the Friar—Miss Hall and Mr. R. Jackson. Dick Jackson has an exceptionally fine bass voice, including the entire range of the baritone and the basso profundo, which was heard to much advantage in this duet. One of his solos in a minor key is not easy singing, but he gave it with artistic correctness. He afterwards sang Woe to Erin, a good song well sung.

Mr. W. A. Settle gained much credit in the duet sung with Miss Smith. We have heard Willie in better voice, but his execution of the music was both skillful and agreeable. We have a word to say about one more duet, apparently (for we could not catch the words always) facetious in its purpose. The young ladies are evidently discussing their admirers. To one sentence in it, which we did hear distinctly, we take exception; it was where Miss S. remarks to Miss H. very pointedly, "it is not Wright." Well, perhaps it isn't; but it was not necessary to say so in public, and moreover we are not sure that the young lady was correctly informed, for (Dick Jackson to the contrary notwithstanding) we do not despair of convincing her that it is all Wright yet.

Finally, we have to notice a great improvement in the chorus. Some of the choical pieces were by no means easy, especially that attributed to Miss Hall's solo, "Come like a beautiful dream," and they were executed with a precision which tells much for the care and skill exercised in the rehearsals. In this department all the gentlemen hitherto mentioned did good service as well as George McCurdy, who has not received the notice he well deserves as a careful and efficient musician.

The New York Observer is out with its prospectus for the fifty-fifth year. It is a large paper of the first class, and should be in every family in the land. Those who do not take it should send for a specimen copy at once, or, better yet, should send the price for a year. Any person desiring a comprehensive weekly newspaper, filled with just the news that every family wants and free from clap-trap or objectionable matter of any kind, will hardly do better than to send $3.15 to S. I. Prime & Co., 37 Park Row, New York, and receive the Observer post-paid.

The Family Story Paper. We have recently received from the publishers a copy of the above named illustrated weekly. As an inducement to subscribe, outside of its fine illustrations, its fair typography and its interesting stories—some of which are devoted to the interest of the young—the proprietors will give to their patrons a beautifully illustrated copy of Shakspeare's works, issued in weekly parts, until the volume is completed. We do not know of any other literary paper which offers such a liberal bonus to its patrons. Those who wish to avail themselves of an opportunity to possess the works of the great poet, should subscribe.

Published by N. L. Munro & Co., 74 Beekman St. New York at $3.00 per annum in advance.

THE FESTIVE SEASONS OF CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR.

These festive seasons of Christmas and New Year have passed since we last addressed our readers. There has been much to depress our people at the usually joyous season; a clouded political horizon, a serious depression in business transactions contributed to somewhat unfit our people for the seasonable festivities, and the customary masquerading and egg-nogg and fire-crackers were rather perfunctorily got through with; but the deep snows and subsequent freezing weather which occurred between Christmas and New Year started the merry sleigh-bells, and our beaux and belles have had as gay a time as could be desired careering over the crisp white snow and enlivened by the sweet tinkling of the bells and the still sweeter music of the girlish laugh—but look out girls! it is serious business after all and matrimony may come of it—beware. And so commences in joy and laughing the hundredth year of our National existence. May it end as happily as it began, our political institutions have a severe strain to go through with before another new year, and if we approach the trials with anxiety it is also with hopefulness, not yet forgetting that there is a divinity which shapes our ends, though how we may.

Showing of Our Chancery Court. Gov. Porter having called on Polk G. Johnson, commissioner of the Chancery Court, for a report of the number of cases tried in the Chancery Court at this place for three years, from January 1, 1874, to the present time, and for other information in regard to the Court, the report was immediately forwarded, from which we are permitted to make the following extract:

Number of Terms of Court, 10
Number of cases finally disposed of, 274
Number of judgments rendered, 274
Aggregate amount of these judgments, $279,993 36
Number of appeals from minute books, 1,100
Amount of revenue collected for the State, $1,242 00
Number of cases undisposed of, 351

During the term of office of the present Clerk and Master from July 1, 1870, to the present time, the clerk has never cost the State one dollar and has cost the county nothing except for the record books. The total amount of revenue collected for the State and paid over from July 8, 1870, to present time is $3,104.

Old Boreas. It has been many years since we have had weather as intensely cold as it has been during the present week. The mean range of the thermometer for December was 22.6, the lowest for the month being 1° above zero, and the highest 47° above the zero, the being made at 7 o'clock a. m., January 1st the reading was 22°; on the 2d 10°; on the 3d 65°; or 5° degrees below zero; on the 4th 18°.

Reports from all parts of the country show a severity of cold almost unprecedented. The Cumberland is frozen across at this city, the first time since 1836; and navigation indefinitely suspended. We are now having the finest sleighing we have ever known in this latitude; it has been protracted to an unusual length of time with no indications of the disappearance of the snow at the present writing.

The trial of Dock Rickman on appeal before the Supreme Court will take place in Nashville next week. Gen. W. A. Quarles goes up to argue for the prosecution and will be assisted by Mr. Heskell, the State Attorney-general. Rufus Rhodes, Esq., will appear for the defense. Our young friend will have a strong team against him, but we know that he is well posted in all the points of the case, and believe that he will do credit to the Clarksville bar. His argument in our own Court-house for a new trial of the case was considered by our best lawyers as a very able effort.

We have to acknowledge the courtesy of Judge Smith, our newly elected representative, in sending us a valuable geological report from the Ocoee and Hiwassee mineral district by J. B. Killebrew, commissioner of agriculture, &c. It will be noticed in our report that the Judge was elected temporary chairman prior to organizing the House, and we have no doubt he will be recognized as one of the ablest of the new members of the General Assembly.

We are glad to find George Irwin installed as book-keeper in the establishment of Kendrick, Hambrough & Co. at the Central warehouse. We have long known George as a steady, gentlemanly boy, and we also know that he has had such training as to make him a first rate accountant. We have no doubt he will be a valued acquisition wherever he is employed.

THE January term of the County Court, met last Monday, Squire W. S. Mallory presiding in the absence of Judge Tyler. The usual amount of appropriations were made. The Court reduced the salary of the County Superintendent of Public Schools, from $500, to $200; after which Rev. M. G. Garney was elected for the present year. Maj. J. H. Johnson was re-elected Notary Public, and Chas. D. Bailey qualified as deputy county Trustee.

TEMPERANCE.—The Supreme Executive Committee of the Independent Champions of the Red Cross, will meet in this city, Wednesday January 17, 1877, at Temperance Hall, at 12 o'clock. This will be an important meeting and we trust that much good will be accomplished for the permanent establishment of the order throughout its jurisdiction and especially in this city.

R. D. MOSLEY, Trustee, for the month of December collected for the State and County $3,017.42, and $1,263 of the city taxes. Tax-payers have now thirty days to pay their tax before the penalty is put on. Walk up and pay without further notice as the time is short.

The old reliable Elephant Warehouse, Turnley, Ely & Kennedy proprietors, have a very attractive advertisement in to-day's paper. This house has always done a large business, and the farmers cannot do better than to send their tobacco to this house. Read their advertisement in another column.

MR. RUDOLPH SKELTON has accepted the situation of Express Messenger with Mr. Millet at this office. Rudolph is an energetic young man and is attentive to business.

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.

Snow! snow! "Beautiful snow" in abundance. All our young gentlemen are taking advantage of it by taking their girls sleighing, and oh! the fun they do have. Some are taking such pains in making sleighs that I am afraid by the time they are completed they will be minus snow. Our young friend W. E. S.—carried a young lady sleighing; he was driving rapidly and putting on extra style when lo! the sleigh gave way, throwing them out, and William, after scrambling in the snow a while, at last succeeded in finding his "fair charmer" looking as fresh and bright as if nothing had happened. He soon borrowed another sleigh, and they went on their way rejoicing.

On Christmas night Mrs. Cephie Burgess gave one of those novelty entertainments (for which she is so famous) in the way of a "pound party," which was largely attended and much enjoyed.

On Wednesday night our young ladies and gentlemen "tripped the light fantastic toe" at Mr. R. W. Thomas, Clarksville was well represented by Messrs. Brandon, Major, Oldham and C. S. Allen. I heard one young lady remark that she "verily believed Mr. M.—could talk a girl's heart wild in fifteen minutes." Many thanks to Mr. Thomas and lady for their nice entertainment, which was hugely enjoyed, and only say give us another.

Miss Bettie E. Howell is absent now visiting Mr. Wm. Ragsdale, near Hopkinsville. We wish her "lots of fun." We have had quite a number of visitors in our town during the past week; among them Miss Bettie Cooper, of Bennettsburg. We all like you, Miss Cooper, and regret that your stay was so brief; but we live in the hope that you will come again soon, and that your visit may not be limited.

One of Clarksville's fair daughters, Miss Lelia Gibbons, has been spending the holidays in our town. She is so gay and cheerful, and makes every one around feel so happy, we are always ready to give her a hearty welcome to our midst.

Misses Tommie Gold and Rosa Malory, two charming and talented young ladies of Woodlawn, are the guests of Mr. B. K. Gold.

Mr. R. E. Howell, recently of Hopkinsville, made a short stay in our town last week visiting relatives and friends. I enjoyed his gay company exceedingly, and could truly sing, "What made the ball so fine?" Robin was there. I trust he will make frequent visits to his old home, or else we'll be singing, "What's this dull town to me?" Robin's not here."

Miss Fannie Smith is visiting at Mr. B. Rossington's. We are glad to welcome Miss Fannie, and hope she may make a long visit.

Our former townsman, Mr. D. W. Scott, is in town for a few days. We trust he will come often; he is always sure of a hearty welcome.

I understand that the latest agency in making fashionable calls is to drop up to a young lady's gate, say "good-evening" and drive off. This was practiced in our town last week by Messrs. H. Allen and W. Dority, two of Clarksville's exquisites. We guess the young ladies will excuse them for being so extremely fashionable as it was Christmas, and we know they will think, "come again, young gentlemen, you haven't too long to stay."

THE card of the Grange Warehouse Association will be found in this issue of our paper. The Superintendent, Mr. T. Herndon has been in the business for a number of years, and has built up an enviable reputation, as one of the best warehousemen in the business. All of the attaches are honorable and responsible men, and we cheerfully recommend this house to the farmers in this and the surrounding counties.

On last Tuesday morning Sheriff J. E. Mosley and Mr. George Perkins, Jailor, left for Nashville with Dave Meriwether, (colored) who, it will be remembered, threw a passenger train off the track at Dudley's a few months ago. He is sent to the Penitentiary for 15 years.

They also had in charge Dock Rickman, the murderer of Thornton Hickman, (both colored) sentenced to be hung, but appealed to the Supreme Court.

COUTLER & BROTHER have a new advertisement in this issue. They call special attention to their cheap shirts, clothing, boots, shoes, etc. They are true, though vanity cannot be brought determined to sell, and all you have to do is to call and examine their goods and you will be apt to make a purchase. Read advertisement.

A NEW ORLEANS dispatch of Jan. 3 says: "All the judges of the courts of this city and the civil sheriff waited on General Nichols to-day at his invitation, and gave their adhesion and recognition to him as the legally-elected and constitutional governor. The criminal sheriff was not present."

THE next term of the present session of the Female Academy will commence on the 22d inst. President Plummer, we are glad to learn, is succeeding finely in building up a first class school. Read his advertisement in another column.

WE are sorry to learn that our coal dealers have been out of coal for several days. They are making every effort in their power to supply the demand, but have failed to get transportation.

WE are sorry to learn that Mr. Dan Gold of this county, has been seriously ill from colds, but are glad to state that his condition was much improved on Thursday, the last we heard from him.

SEE advertisement of a stray mule from New Providence. Ten dollars reward to any one who will deliver him to the owner.

THE Building and Loan Association will loan to its members on Wednesday, Jan. 10, two thousand dollars.

GOLD closed in New York Wednesday at 107, after selling at 106 1/2 and 107.

Tennessee bonds closed at 43 for old and 44 for new. The cotton market was steady, midling upland closing at 12 1/2 @ 12 3/4.

THE Christmas tree at South Clarksville Church on Tuesday night, Dec. 25th, for the pupils of the Sunday school was quite a success. The tree was beautifully arranged, with the presents dotted all over it. The singing by the scholars was well executed, and especially by the class of little girls and boys. When old Santa Claus made his appearance through the window, the children could hardly suppress their joy. He went to work after an appropriate address to the children, and distributed the many presents which had been prepared for the occasion.

FOR SALE.—An excellent wardrobe cheap. Call at CHRONICLE office.

COUNTY GRANGE Meeting. Montgomery county Grange will meet at H. & L. hall on Monday next at 11 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is requested. It is also requested that the Masters of the granges in the county attend said meeting for the purpose of electing a representative to the State Grange.

B. F. MOODY, W. M. Z. SMITH, Sec'y.

BANK OF CLARKSVILLE. The Bank of Clarksville has declared a 5 per cent. semi-annual dividend payable on demand. Stockholders will please meet in the bank at 3 o'clock p. m., Saturday, 13th inst., to elect five directors.
